Special thanks to our models:

Mose Fa'atamala

Mose jokes that he has his own netball team as he's married with four daughters. Born in Samoa, Mose lost his arm at the age of 14 when he fell from a coconut tree. He has been involved in professional sports for many years and represented Samoa at the Paralympics in the 100m, 200m, long jump and javelin. He has also competed in international sports events like the FESPIC Games in Asia and the Arafura Games in Australia. Mose works as a community educator for alcohol and drugs at Penina Health Trust.

Roman Tali Pulefolau

Roman loves riding his bike, playing at the park, kicking the soccer ball around and swimming. He is a confident swimmer and doesn't like his parents being too close to him especially when he is in the deep end of the pool! Roman has a Samoan Mum and a Niuean Dad and he and his two brothers enjoyed a family trip to Samoa in early 2010. His Dad can't wait to take the family to Niue next. Roman was diagnosed at three years old with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD).

Zepa Tauraki

Like lots of young woman, Zepa loves make up, singing and dancing. Zepa lives with her parents and brother. This Cook Island Maori family enjoys having their family visit as well as attending the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Royal Oak.

Zepa suffers epilepsy and is intellectually disabled. She is cared for full time by her Mum, Daphne, though she also enjoys going to respite where she likes meeting other people.

Daniel (Tipi) Te'o

Daniel is "100% Samoan, 200% dreamer!" Living at home, Daniel works as a needs assessor for the Royal Foundation for the Blind. Daniel's a "hearty sports fan" and currently plays cricket and hockey. He also has a passion for music and recently enjoyed the buzz of rewriting and recording his own tracks thanks to the help of friends.

Daniel has been vision impaired his whole life by retinitis pigmentos, a hereditary and degenerative eye condition. Though Daniel can now only see the difference between light and dark, a little colour and shadows, it has never changed his "perception of life and what it has to offer".

Selepa Tupa'i

Selepa is Samoan and lives with her husband Samuelu in Mangere and has a strong Christian faith. She is actively involved in church as a Sunday school teacher and loves "to praise and worship God in prayer and singing".

Selepa was a teacher before joining PIASS Trust in 2003. Her work involves supporting people with disabilities, especially elderly Pacific people. Selepa had polio when she was four years old and her favourite quote is "be faithful in prayer and do not be weary but be steadfast and strong with faith".
